

2021 AAA/APM Fly-in Info

AIRCRAFT FUEL SERVICES

APM Director Shane Vande Voort and his crew from Classic Aviation in Pella, IA will provide fuel (100LL) service at Antique Airfield during the Fly-In. The fuel truck will be parked east of Hangar #1 (furthest building to the east) and you will have to taxi your aircraft to the truck for fuel during the following hours of operation:

Wed Sep. 1st - 12 pm to 7 pm

Thurs Sep. 2nd thru Sun Sep. 5th – 8 am to 7 pm

Mon Sep. 6th – 8 am to 12 pm

Daily Pilot Briefing

A Pilot's Briefing will be held daily at 10:30 am on the porch of the Ground Loop Inn (#1 on map), AAA President Brent Taylor officiating.

At the briefing we will cover airport operations, procedures, and any problems relating to airport operations that might arise.

We encourage all pilots, photographers & interested members to attend, if you plan to go flying during the day your attendance at this briefing is required !

FLY-IN FOOD & DRINK

The North Hy-Vee Store will be on hand to cater meals and snacks in the 24th Fighter Squadron Mess Hall starting on Wednesday at noon up through noon on Monday, Labor Day. A wide variety of breakfast, lunch, and dinner meals will be served.

Also available ice & other carryout grocery items.

The Dave Warren Coffee House

The Michigan AAA chapter once again invites you to start your day at Dave Warren's Coffee House (patio of the Ground Loop Inn). Open daily, Rosie Duckworth, Carol & Gary Van Farowe, plus other MI AAA Chapter members will be serving fresh coffee first thing in the am. All proceeds from the Coffee House go to the APM.

The Pilots Pub

Nightly 6pm to midnight,

Wed. (Sep. 1st) - Sun. (Sep. 5th)

APM Fly-Market

Retired APM Director Steve Butler, assisted by Les "Sparky" Gaskill will be handling this popular venue for the sale of aircraft parts and materials.

But the Fly-Market needs inventory, so please consider a donation or bringing your parts to sell. Any parts/projects welcome, whether they're antique parts or post-war classic items.

Consignees must provide an inventory, as well as pricing of said inventory with 20% of consignment sales price going to the APM.

For more information and/or a copy of the APM Fly-Market Consignee Agreement, contact us here at AAA/APM Headquarters or Steve at 712-251-4750.
